

WE ARE PLAYING AGAIN!

After two successful years, the public presentations of the Health Learning Games continue in 2024! This year for the first time in English.

The students of the Medical Technology program of the Carinthia University of Applied Sciences will present specially designed and implemented games in the context of health promotion & knowledge.

Join us for four exciting online game presentations, get inspired and discuss directly with the students and other interested people about:

1. Climate Buddy (Katharina Omelko, Anna Maria Schöffmann)
2. Lifesaver Legends (Clara Bauer, Noah Müller)
3. Klagenfurt Quest (Janik Müller, Moritz Wieser)
4. Step by Step (Valentin Marko, Pascal Lager)

Moderation by: Prof. Dr. Daniela E. Ströckl

When:

On 9 February 2024 from 14:30-17:00.

Where:

Online – via MS Teams Link
